The cabinets can be mounted directly to a laboratory wall via four rear slots (see photo directly to the right). Another mounting solution is to fit them in our equipment racks (as in the far-right photo), where a maximum of 7 cabinets can be mounted on RK4101 shelves within the rack.

materials for our customers when possible, this initiative seeks to improve the environmental impact of our product packaging. Products listed above are now shipped in re-engineered packaging that minimizes the weight and the use of non-recyclable materials.^b As we move through our product line, we will indicate re-engineered packages with our Smart Pack logo.

- Travel-based emissions reduction calculations are estimated based on the total weight reduction of packaging materials used for all of 2013's product sales, traveling 1,000 miles on an airplane, to provide general understanding of the impact of packaging material reduction. Calculations were made using the EPA's shipping emissions values for different modes of transport.
- Some Smart Pack products may show a negative weight reduction percentage as the substitution of greener packaging materials, such as the Greenwrap, at times slightly increases the weight of the product packaging.
